

Key federal election dates

Sept.

Sunday

15

Elections Canada offices are open across the country. You can vote at any office before Tuesday, October 15, 6:00 p.m. Visit elections.ca to find the one nearest you

Thursday

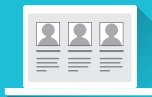

3

If you didn't get your voter information card or the information on it is wrong, visit elections.ca or call 1-800-463-6868

Thursday

3

Visit elections.ca to find the final list of candidates in your riding

Friday

4

The Guide to the federal election is mailed to all households. Keep it handy – it has all the information you need to get ready to vote

Friday to Monday

11-14

Advance polling stations are open for four days, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Check your voter information card or visit elections.ca to find your voting location

Tuesday

15

This is the deadline to apply to vote by mail. You will vote using the special ballot process

Monday

21

Election day

- Bring your accepted ID
- If you haven't registered yet, you can do so at your assigned polling station
- Check your voter information card for your assigned polling station information

X
It's Our Vote