Auditor's Report

To the members of the Christian Heritage Party of Canada

We have examined the Registered Party Return in respect of the election expenses incurred by the Christian Heritage Party held on June 28, 2004 general election. Our examination was designed to enable us to report as required under Section 430(1) of the Canada Elections Act and was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards including such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances, except as noted in the following paragraph.

Due to the nature of the activities of a registered political party, it is not possible to determine by auditing procedures the extent of omissions, if any, from the accounting records relating to this general election. Therefore, our examination of financial transactions was directed to transactions recorded in such accounting records.

In our opinion, the Return in respect of election expenses of the Christian Heritage Party presents fairly the information contained in the accounting records on which the Return is based.
