Auditor's Report

To the members of the Christian Heritage Party of Canada

I have audited the Registered Party Return in Respect of General Election Expenses incurred by the Christian Heritage Party of Canada held on October 14, 2008 general election. My audit was designed to enable me to report as required under Section 430(1) of the Canada Elections Act and was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards including such tests and other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances, except as noted in the following paragraph.

Due to the nature of the activities of a registered political party, it is not possible to determine by auditing procedures the extent of omissions, if any, from the accounting records relating to this general election. Therefore, my examination of financial transactions was directed to transactions recorded in such accounting records.

In my opinion, the Registered Party Return in Respect of General Election Expenses of the Christian Heritage Party of Canada presents fairly the information contained in the accounting records on which the Return is based.
