

Registered Party's Statement of Assets and Liabilities As of the Day Before the Effective Date of the Registration (EC 20232) – Instructions

When to use this form

This form is mandatory for all newly registered political parties. It lists the party's assets, liabilities and net assets as of the day before the effective date of the registration, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Additionally, an auditor's report and any notes to the financial statements or supporting schedules must accompany this form.

This form is due within six months after becoming a registered party.

Tips for completing this form

Section A

Provide information about the registered party.

Sections B and D

The declaration must be signed by the chief agent. The chief agent must be the agent in Elections Canada's registry at the time of signing.

Assets, liabilities and net assets

Ensure that total assets equal the sum of total liabilities and net assets.
